Special consideration may be available if you, your spouse's and/or your parents' (if you're a dependent) current financial situation is not accurately reflected by 2024 tax information. If your income was significantly less in 2025 or will be significantly less in 2026, the Financial Aid Office may be able to adjust the income used to calculate your financial need.

To request consideration of your circumstances, complete this form and send copies of documentation.
If you are selected for verification, it must be completed prior to any special circumstances appeal. **

Check all circumstances you would like considered:

☐ Loss of Employment as of _____
- Attach a copy of last pay stub from all jobs and separation papers or a letter from previous employer(s).
- Attach documentation of Unemployment Benefits.
- After January 1, 2027, copies of 2026 federal taxes and/or W-2 forms may be required.

☐ Change in Employment as of _____
- Attach copies of last pay stub(s) and letter from employer(s) documenting the change.
- After January 1, 2027, copies of 2026 federal taxes or and/or W-2 forms may be required.

☐ Loss of Taxed or Untaxed Income or Benefit
- Attach copy of letter from agency which provided the benefit.

☐ One-Time Income
- Attach copy of income documentation and a written explanation of how it was used.

☐ Unusual, Unreimbursed Medical/Dental Expenses Exceeding 10% of income.
- Attach a copy of receipts or letter from healthcare provider detailing amount you paid.

☐ Tuition Expenses for Private Elementary or Secondary Education.
- Attach a copy of contract including names of children, tuition cost and scholarships received.

☐ Nursing Home Expenses
- Attach copy of nursing home contract or bill showing amount paid by you.

☐ Change in Marital Status: Separation, Divorce or Death
- Attach a copy of the separation or divorce decree or death certificate.

☐ Child or dependent care expenses
- Attach a copy of receipts or payments.

☐ Other: _____
